Addresses Big Meeting in Alexandria County.

JOHNSON RECEIVES REPRIEVE

Condemned Murderer - Conductor Fire Damages Houseboat Rosebud.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU,

(Bell Telephone 113.)
Corner of Prince and Royal Streets. Alexandria, Va., May 15.-A representative mass meeting of the voters of Alexandria County was held this evening in the courthouse, on Fort Myer Heights when Charles C. Carlin, of this city, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress, delivered an address in support at the home of her uncle, George H. Hinof his candidacy. The meeting was called to order by Curtis B. Graham, chairman of the Democratic county committee, and Richard C. L. Moncure was chosen chair man. He introduced Mr. Carlin, who, the outset of his speech, was handed a beautiful bouquet of white roses, at tached to which was a card inscribed From the citizens of Alexandri County." The presentation was made by little Miss Gertrude Collins, daughter of Deputy Sheriff Harry Collins.

In addition to the usual features dis cussed in his campaign speeches, Mr. Carlin referred to a number of matters of particular local interest. He declared in favor of the construction of the mem rial bridge and indorsed the eight-hour law. He favored the repeal of the "dip net" law in so far as it interferes with the citizens of Alexandria County catching fish with dip nets in the Potomac for family use. The audience showed marked and 232 North Henry street. enthusiasm, repeatedly applauding the

It was expected that John F. Ryan, or Loudoun, would deliver an address at the meeting in the interest of his candidacy but he sent word that a previous engage ment prevented his attendance.
